Petitioning the Court

To modify the conditions of Supervised Release as follows:

You must participate in a mental health treatment program, as directed by the probation officer. You are to pay part or all cost of this treatment, at an amount not to exceed the cost of treatment, as deemed appropriate by the probation officer. Payments shall never exceed the total cost of mental health counseling. The actual co-payment schedule shall be determined by the probation officer.

Cause

Mr. Derek Ardis commenced his term of supervised release on March 22, 2018, and thus far there have been no reported violations noted.

Mr. Ardis and his spouse are experiencing relationship challenges that stem from a lack of communication. The undersigned had a lengthy discussion with Mr. Ardis about attending therapeutic services to improve his communication skills and gain useful tools to improve his anger issues. Mr. Ardis is open to addressing his needs in a therapeutic setting and agrees that he would benefit from counseling services.

It has been communicated to Mr. Ardis, the length of time in treatment, to include schedule of counseling sessions, will be at his own discretion. On June 29, 2019, this officer met with Mr. Ardis and he inquired about the referral for treatment services and he is anxious to attend counseling with his spouse. The undersigned believes this indicates a desire to pursue personal growth.

The probation officer is hopeful that treatment services will assist Mr. Ardis in his relational and communication efforts and address any anger issues he may be experiencing.

Respectfully submitted,
